The book SELLING FEAR: COUNTERTERRORISM, THE MEDIA, AND PUBLIC OPINION (University of Chicago Press), authored by Dr. Yaeli Bloch-Elkon from Bar-Ilan University's School of Communication (and two co-authors from Columbia University: Prof. Robert Shapiro and Prof. Brigitte Nacos) has just been granted another distinction – chosen by Choice Magazine as 2013 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Awards.

Explanation: Every year Choice publishes a prestigious list of Outstanding Academic Titles, which reflects the best in scholarly titles. The list is quite selective: it contains approximately ten percent of some 7,000 works reviewed in Choice each year. Choice editors base their selections on the reviewer's evaluation of the work, the editor's knowledge of the field, and the reviewer's record. In awarding Outstanding Academic Titles, the editors apply several criteria to reviewed titles:

- overall excellence in presentation and scholarship
- importance relative to other literature in the field
- distinction as a first treatment of a given subject in book or electronic form
- originality or uniqueness of treatment
- value to undergraduate students
- importance in building undergraduate library collections
